Tenant Dashboard, Notices and Rent Payments

Applicant information - retain this page for your records. The signed rental agreement controls rent amounts, due dates and any lawful late-fee obligation. This application does not create a late-fee policy.

The tenant dashboard at bowlinglegacy.com is the most effective way to reach management for maintenance, notices, documents and payment arrangements. Download a fillable PDF, save it, then attach it to a dashboard message. A dated copy is filed in your resident record and landlord inbox.

Dashboard submission records your communication; it does not by itself establish legal service. For a month-to-month move-out, generally give at least 30 days' written notice under ORS 90.427 and deliver it under ORS 90.155. First-class mail generally adds three days. Email service requires a qualifying written addendum; termination by email also requires first-class mail. Follow the notice rules applicable to your tenancy.

Pay rent through bowlinglegacy.com, Cash App $Trmf8763 (cash.app/$Trmf8763), or your bank's online bill pay to our business account. Request verified business payee/account instructions privately through the tenant dashboard before setting up bank bill pay. Include your name, room and rent month. Schedule payment early enough to be received by the deadline.

An agreed late fee is added automatically to the balance on the day after the applicable legal and lease pay-by period expires, only under a valid written late-fee policy. Fees stay separate from rent. Painted Lady: rent due on the 1st, pay by 11:59 p.m. Pacific on the 5th, one $25 fee on the 6th. Belmont: pay by 11:59 p.m. Pacific on the 8th, one agreed 5% fee on the 9th, only if lawful and reasonable. Contact the landlord through the dashboard before the deadline, state when rent will be paid, and obtain written approval to avoid the fee. A request alone does not pause a fee. An approved arrangement pauses assessment through the approved payment date; if rent is not received by then, the agreed fee may be assessed the following day.
